

Colorado Springs Utilities
It's how we're all connected

Request a Fire Flow Report

Note: This form is not for fire flow testing required for Certificate of Occupancy (CO) please contact Water Operations at 719-668-4595 for this information.

Date: _____

Project Name: _____

Project Address: _____

Colorado Springs Utilities Project Number (if applicable): _____

Colorado Springs Utilities RMS Number (if applicable): _____

UDCF Number (new water main construction only): _____

Contact Name: _____

Company Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City, State, Zip Code: _____

Phone Number: _____ Fax Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Per: Utilities Rules and Regulations, 3. Development Fees, Resolution 231-11, you will be billed for multiple fire flow requests within a 12 month period for the same address or project.

Building Type and Size – per Colorado Springs Fire Department Requirements

Gross Square footage: _____

Building Construction Type (choose one) I-A, I-B, IIA, IIIA, IV, V-A, IIB, IIIB, V-B: _____

Building Sprinkled: Yes: _____ No: _____

Required Fire Flow: _____ GPM Number of hydrants required: _____

New Site Development

Construction Drawings for new water main proposed for installation must have been submitted to Colorado Springs Utilities Development Services for initial plan review before fire flows will be provided. Flange elevations for proposed hydrants must be included on the plans. Colorado Springs Utilities project number, RMS number and UDCF number are required for fire flow reports for plans proposing new water mains or hydrants.

Comments: _____

Form submittal to : waterplanning@csu.org or fax to (719)668-5651